Re: United States v. Salvatore Larosa
10 Cr 993 (SLT)

Dear Judge Townes:

Mr. Larosa was released on a $1 million Bond, secured by the homes of his relatives with an electronic monitoring bracelet in the case. He may presently leave his residence to work full-time, to go to church, for medical emergencies and for attorney visits. He has at all times been compliant with the terms of his release.

Mr. LaRosa's fiancé, Jennifer Pescitelli, recently gave birth to their a son, Salvatore, Jr.. By this letter, I am respectfully requesting that Mr. LaRosa be permitted to leave his residence on Sunday, February 12, 2012, to attend the child's Christening at the Holy Rosary Church, located at 80 Jerome Avenue in Staten Island, at 2:00 p.m.. The Christening will be followed by a dinner celebration at Bocelli's Restaurant, located at 1250 Hylan Boulevard in Staten Island from 5:00 p.m. until 8:30 p.m..

The government and U.S. Pretrial Services Office have both consented to this request.

Respectfully yours,

/JRF/

James R. Froccaro, Jr.
